CODE OF CONDUCT

- Punctuality is mandatory. If you arrive 10 minutes late you will be encouraged to observe class since you will have missed important warm-up exercises. This will prevent any risk of injury.
- If you are a ballet student, you are encouraged to be in uniform for your class.
- For all classes, we suggest that you tie your hair back or wear it securely off your face.
- Since talking during class is disruptive, we suggest that you keep all conversation at a minimum.
- You are allowed to drink water during your class. However, we discouraged gum chewing and eating while dancing.
- As a policy, smoking is not allowed anywhere inside the dance studio.
- At Dansez! Dansez! instructors and staff show respect for parents and students. We also expect parents and students to show respect to instructors and staff. Dansez! Dansez! reserves the right to terminate enrollment in its activities due to disruptive and distracting behavior which would be deemed unacceptable for the safety and welfare of other students.
- We recommend that you do not wear your dance shoes on the street or sidewalks so as to preserve the life of your shoes and the studio's floor.
- We recommend that you do not wear any jewelry in class. We suggest that you leave your valuable at home.
- We want you to enjoy your dancing experience at Dansez! Dansez! and we simply ask that you follow our studio's rules and procedures. Thank you for choosing us as your favorite place to dance.
- Tuition is non-refundable in cas of suspension of enrollment or in the event that students withdraw from the program.

Please sign and return to indicate you have read and agree to comply with the Code. It is understood that violation of rules will result in disciplinary action.
